

Contribution ID: 71

Type: not specified

Isospin chemical potential and magnetic fields

Wednesday, 19 February 2014 14:30 (30 minutes)

The pion condensation phase of QCD at large isospin chemical potential is studied in the presence of an external magnetic field. Since the up and down quark electric charges differ, the external field induces a sign problem, which is circumvented through a Taylor-expansion method.

Presenter: ENDRODI, Gergely