

Contribution ID: 35

Type: Overview talk

Reaction measurements on and with radioactive isotopes for nuclear astrophysics

Thursday, 25 March 2010 08:30 (1 hour)

After an introduction to several astrophysical sites, recent experiments will be discussed contributing to the needs for nuclear reaction rates under the respective conditions. The experiments discussed cover a broad range of stellar sites - from p-process to s-process and experimental techniques - from experiments using radioactive samples to measurements with radioactive ion beams.

Primary author: Dr REIFARTH, Rene (University of Frankfurt)

Presenter: Dr REIFARTH, Rene (University of Frankfurt)

Session Classification: Nuclear Reactions and Astrophysics

Track Classification: Nuclear Reactions and Astrophysics