

Fig. 2. Frequency of the “spill structure fluctuations”. The result is that no facility is able to produce a spill structure with relative fluctuation less than 15%. The majority of the spills are in the 15-35% range, and another group of spills is in the 50-80% range.