

Poster prize: criteria considered

- Content: level/quality of the research work done
- Conclusions: did the work lead to something?
- Contribution: how much personal work is involved?
- Clarity: is the poster understandable for a pseudo-general audience? Bottom line?
- Charm: interesting/catchy presentation style, important points in evidence, pleasant
- Care in the presentation: no typos, readable figures

The winners are...

3rd place: ex aequo between Luc Perrot and Aziz Kurt (prize)

2nd place: Nurgul Hafizoglu

1st place: André Ornelas