4. Upload your paper

If you are at the GSI, use the GSI templates for the new GSI Scientific Report.

Or use the templates offered at the entry page:

Do not change the names of the template – please add only your initials at the end of the template name:

E.g. SR-GSI-2015-ST.tex or EXTERN-GSIscientificreport2015-ST.docx

Zip all files (including images, your filled templates and a PS/PDF file) e.g. SR-GSI-2015-ST.zip or EXTERN-GSIscientificreport2015-ST.zip

To do the upload go to 'My conference' and 'My contributions'

The screenshot shows the 'Upload paper' dialog box overlaid on the contribution page. The dialog has a title bar 'Paper selection and submission' and a close button. Inside, there is an 'Upload paper' link, a text input field, and a message 'No paper uploaded'. At the bottom, there are 'Submit' and 'Close' buttons. The background page is dimmed, showing the same 'Call for papers' and 'Upload paper' sections as in the previous image.

If you upload a paper, you declare by this:

1. That your contribution do not infringe rights of third-parties (e.g. copyrights of images)

2. You declare the compliance to the rules for good scientific practice:

http://www.dfg.de/en/research_funding/principles_dfg_funding/good_scientific_practice/

3. That your report has not yet published or submitted anywhere else (e.g. not for CBM progress report etc.)
